Warranty guarantee No. μ

Ladies and Gentlemen:

We were informed that contract No. μ was entered into by and between Messrs. μ and you on μ, concerning μ (detailed description of the subject matter of the contract).

Under the terms of the contract, Messrs. μ are obligated to warrant that the *service rendered/ delivery made by them is free from defects and to provide a related bank guarantee.

With regard to this obligation of Messrs. μ, we, μ (Bank), irrevocably guarantee to you payment up to the maximum amount of

μ
(in words: μ).

We agree to give instruction to pay the requested amount, up to the maximum amount of μ and waiving any objection from the underlying legal relationship, within eight Austrian banking days after receiving your first written demand (also permitted to be made by authenticated SWIFT message but not by telefax or e-mail) which must contain the confirmation that

"Messrs. μ did not, or did not fully, comply with their contractual obligation to discharge their warranty obligation".

Any demand for payment hereunder must be accompanied by a copy of your request already made in writing to Messrs. μ to discharge their warranty obligations.

Both the written demand and the requested documents have to be submitted in the language of the guarantee.

When demanding payment, please specify your account and bank details; payment in cash cannot be made.

Your demand must be transmitted to us through your bank, which has to confirm to us that the signatures on the demand have legally binding effect for your company.

Demands made by means of an authenticated SWIFT message are permissible and will be deemed to have been made within the relevant time limit if

- we receive the entire wording of the demand for payment in the form of an authenticated SWIFT message on or before expiry date of the guarantee,
- the lawfulness of your signatures is confirmed, and
- the original of the demand, together with the required documents, is received at our registered office within 5 days after receipt of the authenticated SWIFT message.

With each demand for payment, our liability shall decrease by the extent of the respective payment made.

The guarantee shall terminate on μ at the latest, irrespective of whether or not aforementioned date is a banking day in Austria. We must receive your demand on that day at the latest.

Furthermore, this guarantee shall terminate before the expiration of its validity solely upon return of the original instrument to us, provided that such instrument is accompanied by a written declaration of intention signed by the beneficiary of the guarantee, confirming that such latter will not make any further claims.

The right to demand payments under the present guarantee cannot be assigned, pledged, or disposed of in any other way for the benefit of third parties.

This legal transaction shall be governed by Austrian law, to the exclusion of the conflict-of-laws rules. It is agreed that any legal disputes arising out of or in connection with this guarantee relationship shall be settled by the court in Linz having jurisdiction over the subject matter.

All expenses arising outside the bank issuing the guarantee shall be borne by the beneficiary of the guarantee.

Sincerely yours,
